Prayer Intentions for the month of June

Intention of Pope Francis: Let us pray for young people who are preparing for marriage with the support of a Christian community: may they grow in love, with generosity, faithfulness and patience.

Intention of Bishop McKnight: In this year of St. Joseph, husband of Mary and foster father of Jesus, may we grow in our appreciation for the importance of the vocation of fatherhood for the benefit of society and the Church.

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Father's Day! I really enjoy when parishioners come up to me and wish me a "Happy Father's Day." You call me "Father," because Bishop McKnight has sent me here to be your Shepherd and spiritual leader of these parish families.

Today, let us surely remember to pray for all who are dads. The pressures of our world can make being a parent very difficult today, and yet study after study shows how important it is for a child to have a strong, supportive, loving, male role-model in his or her formative years. Dads are pulled in many directions by society today; let us pray that they have the fortitude to put God, faith, and family first in their lives. Dads, along with their wives, can seek the intercession of St. Joseph (especially in the Year of St. Joseph) to do God's will for their families and protect and provide for their family and home.

Not all who are fathers can be with their children on Father's Day. We pray for all our dads and grandfathers who have died, may they be with God and continue to teach their children how they may attain the rewards of heaven. Some fathers have to be away from home and children due to work or military service; we pray that they may know the love of God and family through our prayers.

We pray for the many fathers who are in prison, or are not involved in the lives of their children, we pray that they may repent and seek reconciliation with their families. We pray that their children may be able to forgive and know the love of God through their heavenly Father and the love of many father-figures.

Godfathers are an important role in any person's life (as long as they are not mafia). Remember to pray for your godfathers today and godfathers remember to pray for your godchildren. Keep in touch with your godchildren's lives and model a consistent practice of faith to them. The unconditional love of God, the Father, is the model of fatherhood for all dads. May God bless you, with His grace, to fulfill well your role as "Daddy", "Papa" or "Grandpa"; and also, to give yourself fully to the all-important ministry of fatherhood. St. Joseph, husband of Mary and protector of families, pray for us!

Prayers & Blessings,

Heavenly Father, you entrusted your Son Jesus, the child of Mary, to the care of Joseph, an earthly father. Bless all fathers as they care for their families. Give them strength and wisdom, tenderness and patience: support them in the work they have to do, protecting those who look to them, as we look to You for love and salvation, through Jesus Christ our rock and defender, in union with the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. St. Joseph, Pray for all of our Fathers. Amen.

Happy Father's Day
Father Greg!

Readings for June 27, 2021

1st Reading – Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24 God did not make death and does not delight when life is destroyed. All creatures of the world are wholesome. Through the devil’s envy, death entered the world.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11, 12, 13
I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

2nd Reading – 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15 Paul the apostle wrote that the Corinthians have been given much by the Lord. They should give to others in need as others gave to them in their own need.

Gospel – Mark 5:21-43 When Jesus was on his way to heal Jairus’s daughter, a woman touched his cloak and was healed of her sickness. Jesus told the woman, “Daughter, your faith has saved you.”
